

Please up hold the wisconsin no-call list as it exists. We have every right to our privacy. The needless phone calls are an invasion of our privacy. If we want information from the banking community or any other business, we know how to contact them!